Recent news and research

3.17 Autoimmune disease

News reports:

3.17.1 Rheumatoid arthritis

Research:

3.17.1 Rheumatoid arthritis

Sparks, JA et al. Authors' reply to the letter "Mortality due to respiratory causes in rheumatoid arthritis should be interpreted in the context of 'ever' smoking and may be due to ILD". Arthritis Care Res (Hoboken), 2016. Available from: http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/26814444

Twigg, S Dr. Excess mortality due to respiratory causes in patients with rheumatoid arthritis should be interpreted in the context of 'never' or 'ever' smoking and may be due to interstitial lung disease: Comment on the article by Sparks et al. Arthritis Care Res (Hoboken), 2016. Available from: http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/26814614

Iwata, Y. Three cases of previous smokers with rheumatoid arthritis who did not respond to tumor necrosis factor inhibitors were treated successfully with an anti-interleukin-6 receptor antibody. Case Reports in Rheumatology, 2015. Available from: http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/25648415

Other diseases
