Recent news and research

3.18 Other conditions with possible links to smoking

News reports:

3.18.1 Mental illnesses

3.18.2 Neurological diseases

3.18.4 Other conditions

Research:

3.18.1 Mental illnesses

Wium-Andersen, MK et al. Tobacco smoking is causally associated with antipsychotic medication use and schizophrenia, but not with antidepressant medication use or depression. International Journal of Epidemiology, 2015. Available from: http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/26054357

3.18.2 Neurological diseases

Paz-Ballesteros, WC, Monterrubio-Flores, EA, de Jesus Flores-Rivera, J, Corona-Vazquez, T, Hernandez-Giron, C. Cigarette Smoking, Alcohol Consumption and Overweight in Multiple Sclerosis:

Other conditions

Estanol MV, Crisp CC, Oakley SH, Kleeman SD, Fellner AN, et al. Systemic markers of collagen metabolism and vitamin C in smokers and non-smokers with pelvic organ prolapse. Eur J Obstet

3.18.3 Kidney disease

3.18.4 Other conditions

