Relevant news and research

3.7 Pregnancy and smoking

Last updated January 2019

Research:

Huang H, Clancy KB, Burhance C, Zhu Y, and Madrigal L. Women who deliver twins are more likely to smoke and have high frequencies of specific snps: Results from a sample of african-american women

Tobacco in Australia
Facts & Issues

3.7.1 Spontaneous abortion

3.7.2 Ectopic pregnancy

3.7.3 Complications of pregnancy

British Medical Association Board of Science and Education & Tobacco Control Resource Centre, Smoking and reproductive life. The impact of smoking on sexual, reproductive and child health.
3.7.4 Preterm delivery

Tobacco in Australia
Facts & Issues

News reports:

tobaccoinaustralia.org.au
Tobacco in Australia
Facts & Issues

3.7.4 Preterm delivery