Relevant news and research

17.3 The economic rationale for intervention in the tobacco market

Last updated March 2021

Research:

17.3.1 Information failure about health risks of smoking

17.3.2 Information failure about the addictiveness of smoking
Tobacco in Australia
Facts & Issues

17.3.3 The external costs of tobacco use

17.3.4 The internalities of smoking

17.3.5 Potential government responses to market failure

Verweij M. [active anti-smoking policy is a moral duty of government; responsibility for reducing smoking lies with both the individual and society]. Nederlands Tijdschrift voor Geneeskdende, 2017; 161(0):D1351. Available from: http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/28325162