Relevant news and research

7.3 Theories about smoking and quitting

Last updated January 2024

Research:

7.3.1 Behavioural theories ................................................................. 2
7.3.2 Social cognitive theory ............................................................... 4
7.3.3 Theory of planned behaviour ...................................................... 5
7.3.5 Social–ecological model ............................................................. 6
7.3.6 Transtheoretical model/Stages of change ...................................... 7
7.3.8 Physiological models of addiction ............................................... 7
7.3.9 Smoking and quitting as products of social and environmental influences .................................................. 8
7.3.10 Religious views on smoking ....................................................... 12

News reports:

7.3.3 Theory of planned behaviour ...................................................... 14
7.3.4 Health belief model ................................................................. 14
7.3.7 Psychoanalytic theory ............................................................... 14
7.3.9 Smoking and quitting as products of social and environmental influences .................................................. 14
Research:

7.3.1 Behavioural theories

7.3.2 Social cognitive theory

7.3.3 Theory of planned behaviour

7.3.4 Health belief model

7.3.5 Social–ecological model

7.3.6 Transtheoretical model/Stages of change

7.3.8 Physiological models of addiction

7.3.9 Smoking and quitting as products of social and environmental influences

7.3.10 Religious views on smoking

News reports:

7.3.1 Behavioural theories

7.3.3 Theory of planned behaviour

7.3.4 Health belief model

7.3.7 Psychoanalytic theory

7.3.9 Smoking and quitting as products of social and environmental influences

